

for Annie

a service of remembrance and celebration
at Robin Hood Crematorium, Solihull, on 15 August 2008, beginning 2:30pm

followed by an informal reception
at the Tudor Court Hotel,
77 Kineton Green Road, Olton

I See...

*All of time in a teardrop
All of love in a lie
All of hope in a heartstop
All success in a sigh*

*All of hate in a handshake
All of pain in a cry
All of night in a heartbreak
All of life when I die*

In addition to art, cooking and the Yorkshire Dales, Ann had a great love of music, so it's appropriate today's service will include several of her favourite tracks:

Yes
"Turn of the Century"

David Bowie
"Wide Eyed Boy From Freecloud"

Annie Lennox
"Into the West"

Joni Mitchell
"A Case of You"

Peter Gabriel
"Solsbury Hill"

City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra
"Non Nobis, Domine" (from Henry V)

Ann's family wishes to express sincere appreciation to everyone who has sent messages of goodwill at this difficult time.

Although her greatest legacy will be the happy memories we shall all retain of the time she spent among us, we are accepting donations in her name for the charity Diabetes UK; a collection box is available at Robin Hood Crematorium and cheques (payable to "Diabetes UK") can also be forwarded to Steve at 33 Scott Road, Solihull, B92 7LQ.

In addition, a fund-raising collection of Ann's writing and artwork is planned for the near future. If you would like to contribute an anecdote (and there are so many!), there will be a memory book at the reception this afternoon; alternatively, you can contact Steve via e-mail at ghostwords@yahoo.co.uk or via post at the address above.

Thanks to: Mick Scully, officiant; William H Painter, funeral directors; Paper & Print, Solihull; the Tudor Court Hotel; Kevin Clarke.

Illustration on page two by Ann, after Aubrey Bearsley; poem by Ann and Steve; cover photograph by Steve.