

The Genius of Fine Workmanship

Wonderful news! Your undercover team of special agents will be looking for the best workmanship in “Evil Genius” hall costuming in order to give the newly created “Golden Thimble” award for Fine Workmanship.

The reward? An 18-carat gold plated thimble, suitable for hanging around your neck, on a charm bracelet, or on your costume. And bragging rights.

So...be sure to share your intricacies with your fellow costumers. One of them may be a special agent evaluating your creation for this award.

Good luck, and keep wearing those hall costumes!
