

*The Second Coming of PrintZine
A Chris for TAFF Production*

Welcome to The Second Coming of PrintZine!!! This is another attempt at trying to win that elusive mistress called the Trans-Atlantic Fan Fund. And so how will this one be any different from my last one? Well, it'll be shorter and fewer of them because I've got another project in the offing: PodZine, the first TAFF Race PodCast. I'm also determined to keep the thingee known as The Drink Tank on a schedule regular as an Apricot Farmer. I'll be working on at least five issues of PrintZine, and maybe a sixth Jumbo-Sized going-away issue if I lose. If I win, well I'll jump through that bridge when I get to it.

So, this issue is sort of a secondary introduction to Chris and a sort of a weird little thing. The Cover's from Espana Sheriff and that image is by Brad Foster. The rest is me!!!

On the Over- and Under-abundance of Identity

I'm Chris Garcia. It's nice to meet you. That used to be very easy. If I said 'Chris for TAFF' you knew who and what that meant...or you had no clue which either parts of that equation meant. It was a very easy formula. The TAFF race was opened this last week, while I was in St. Louis for NASFiC and I had a strange surprise. Along with Linda Deneroff, there's Chris Garcia, Chris Barkley and Christian McGuire.

Now, you may be familiar with Chris for TAFF, the slogan I was using all last year at WorldCon and throughout the pages of the original run of PrintZine. Now, if you look at that ballot, you'll see that there are not two but 3 Chris's (one of whom never goes by Chris, but in this case should) in the running for TAFF. The problem with the entire thing is that I would fully support any of them using Chris for TAFF as their slogan, but still, it's kinda strange that I was the only candidate at one point and then two other Chrises showed up!

And that brings up another thing: I lost my wallet. Well, I didn't lose it, I had it stolen from my car. Now this wouldn't be a problem if I had ANY other form of ID. Sadly, I have no Passport (though the Undersecretary of Homeland Security Fast-tracked my app the other day!) and no birth certificate. Now, I can get a BC...if I can show ID! That's fine, I can always get my Mom to make the request and then use it, but it's still rough.

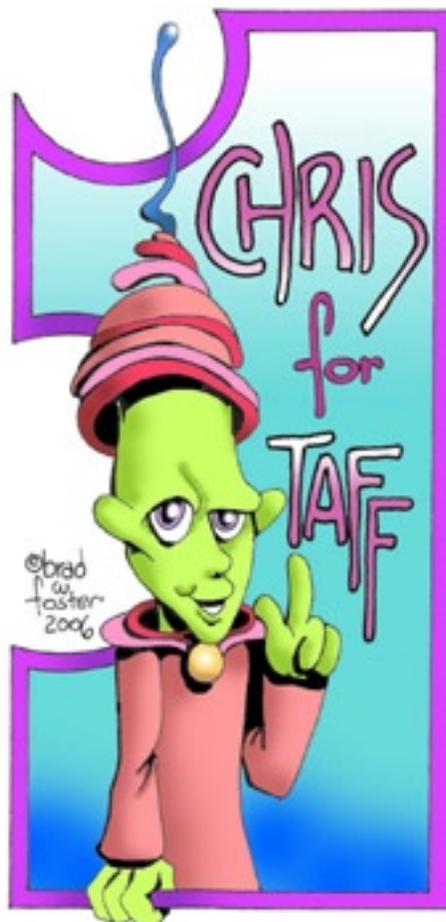

Except, there's hardly anyway short of fingerprinting me to prove that I'm anybody.

I have absolutely no ID, nothing. I have business cards with my name but nothing issued by anyone with a photo or detailed info. There are a few photos of me on the web, and of course Fandom knows who I am, but if I were smart, I'd use this moment to shave my beard, cut my hair, quick-slim down to a reasonable weight and restart my life under a new name! The Chris for TAFF Garcia you knew is dead, I would proclaim. Say Hello to Miguel Sanchez! I'd leave SF fandom and start over new in Western or Ramance fandom, start new fanzines and make snide comments until the day they figured out I was the notorious Chris Garcia and was run out of town! That would be AWESUM!!! Sadly, I haven't the heart to try it. My good luck 10 Dollar silver piece was in my wallet and I wouldn't try such an enterprise without it.

OK, that's this mini-issue. Check back in a couple of weeks when I'll be talking about Friends!

2008 TAFF Ballot — North America to Europe

What is TAFF? The Trans-Atlantic Fan Fund was created in 1953 for the purpose of providing funds to bring well-known and popular fans familiar to those on both sides of the ocean across the Atlantic. Since that time TAFF has regularly brought North American fans to European conventions and European fans to North American conventions. TAFF exists solely through the support of fandom. Interested fans all over the world vote on the candidates, and each vote is accompanied by a donation of not less than $3 or £2. These votes, and the continued generosity of fandom, are what make TAFF possible.

Who may vote? Voting in the 2008 race is open to anyone who was active in fandom prior to April 2006, and who contributes at least $3 or £2 to the Fund. Larger contributions will be gratefully accepted. Voting is by secret ballot: only one vote per person, and you must sign your ballot. You may change your vote any time prior to the deadline.

Deadline: Votes in this race must reach the administrators by Midnight, PST, Saturday 17 November 2007. This is 8 AM, GMT, Sunday 18 November 2007.

Voting details: TAFF uses a preferential ballot system which guarantees automatic runoffs until a majority is obtained. You rank the candidates in the exact order of your preference for them. If the leading first-place candidate does not get a majority, the first-place votes for the lowest-ranking candidate are dropped, and the second-place votes on those ballots are counted as first-place votes. This process repeats itself until one candidate has a majority. Your votes for second and third place are important, but you may give your candidate only one ranking on your ballot. In order to win, a candidate must receive at least 20% of the first-ballot first-place votes on both sides of the Atlantic, separately. Any candidate failing to receive this minimum percentage on either side will be dropped, and the second-place votes on their ballots counted as first-place votes in the next ballot count. Thus candidates and their supporters will need to canvass fans on both sides of the pond. You may send your ballot to either administrator, but it will be tabulated with the other votes from the side of the Atlantic on which you reside. Votes from fans not resident in either Europe or North America will not count towards either 20% minimum, but are important to the outcome of the race.

Hold Over Funds: This choice, like "No Award" in Hugo balloting, gives you the chance to vote for no TAFF trip this year, if the candidates do not appeal. Hold Over Funds may be voted for in any position, and is exempt from the 20% requirement; thus, if it receives a majority of the votes on the final ballot, no TAFF trip will be held this year regardless of how many votes Hold Over Funds received on the first ballot.

No Preference: For voters who prefer not to choose between candidates, but don't want the trip held over.

Donations: TAFF gratefully accepts your freely given money and material for auction; such generosity has sustained the Fund for over 50 years. TAFF is fandom's oldest travel fund, and one of its worthiest causes — give early and often! Please contact your nearest administrator for details.

Candidates: Each candidate has posted a bond, promising — barring Acts of God — to travel, if elected, to: Eastercon 2008, and has provided signed nominations and a platform (overleaf).

Please read both sides of this ballot before voting. Send entire sheet as your vote.

2008 TAFF Ballot — North America to Europe

Chris Barkley

In many world cultures, the pilgrimage is seen as a serious undertaking; a sacred journey to a place of personal or spiritual importance. When I first entered fandom in the 1970's one of the first (and most exotic) things I learned about was the TransAtlantic Fan Fund, where sf fans were exchanged from the far-flung corners of the United Kingdom and North America. TAFF is not only our annual pilgrimage; it is one of our most important cultural traditions. It would be an exquisite honor to visit the land that gave us such icons as Olaf Stapledon and Doctor Who.

Nominators: Johnny Carruthers (US), Colin Harris (UK), Marcia Kelly Illingworth (UK), Michaele Jordan (US), Laurie Mann (US)

Linda Deneroff

For over 35 years I've had my fingers and toes in many fannish pursuits, ranging from convention running to Star Trek and Star Wars fanzines. I've worked on many conventions including Worldcons and Worldcon bids on both the left and right coasts, in capacities ranging from volunteer to treasurer to chair, starting with Lunacon in the early 1970s, (1980 chair, James White GoH!). Today I live in Seattle, where I help produce Foolscap, a small literary-and-art oriented convention. I love reading, traveling, and attending conventions. I'm thrilled to be nominated, and I hope you'll vote for me.

Nominators: Margaret Austin (UK), Hank Graham (US), Tim Illingworth (UK), Margaret Organ-Kean (US), Kevin Standlee (US)

Chris Garcia

Stop me if you think that you've heard this one before. Chris Garcia is a fan. He's from Northern California. He writes zines like The Drink Tank, Claims Department and Science Fiction San Francisco. He's been a member of ANZAPA, FAPA and a few other APAs. In general he writes as often as he breathes. Chris does game shows at cons, likes fried food, enjoys a good bourbon, plays a mean game of poker, likes cons with Fanzine Lounges that turn into parties, and will talk and talk and talk. He also once fell down a mountain. Ask him about it.

Nominators: James Bacon (UK), Arnie Katz (US), Mark Plummer (UK), John Purcell (US), Ted White (US)

Christian McGuire

I'm a reader, conventioneer, and club fan. I was a regular contributor/first O.E. of The Gallifreyan Home Companion (a Dr. Who APA), and written for other fine fanzines. I've met many British and European fans over the years without getting to know them. My theory of conventions is that everything serves the opportunity for great conversation. If chosen for TAFF, I'd sit down to as many parts of the conversation as possible to meet new people and get to know those I've only briefly encountered before. I'd take a ton of notes, some photos, and write a great trip report!

Nominators: Chaz Boston Baden (US), Vincent Docherty (EU), Mike Glyer (US), Milt Stevens (US), Robbie Bourget & John Harold (UK)

Please read and fill out both sides of this sheet. Send in entire sheet as your vote. Do not detach this portion!
I vote for (rank 1, 2, 3, etc.):

Chris Barkley

Christian McGuire

Linda Deneroff

Hold Over Funds

Chris Garcia
