10-6-05 ETERNAL FRAUD & CORRUPTION

As quickly as possible: A few days ago the Iraq govt. passed a constitutional election law change dictating that two-thirds of registered voters were required to vote NO on the new constitution in three provinces before the constitution could be Rejected.

Yesterday the Iraq government reversed itself under U.S., U.N. and other, Arab pressures, making the old, approved measure (two-thirds of voters in the constitutional election) once more the rule.

And we think that, once we're gone, the "democratic" process will continue with integrity and pre-eminent law?

I note as a sidebar to the last December Iraq election:

Recall that the accumulating vote totals were issued daily after the election until the 3.1 million total was reached, with five provinces yet to be counted. The U.S. govt. and the press had made 8.1 million votes the total which would give 'legitimacy' to the election and the resulting Iraqi government.

It became horribly obvious the 8.1 million total would not be reached (probably because the five yet-to-be-counted provinces were Sunni-dominated and opposed to the election).

WHAT TO DO?

When in doubt delay and lie. A week went by as excuses were used up in 'recount' problems...

And then---wonder of wonders!---the total was released. It was 8.4 million votes! The election was legitimate! {Dance in the street or we'll shoot you!}

Yet... Now a telltale stat has been released: the Iraqi government has printed only 5.1 million copies of the new, to-be-voted-on constitution, to be given to the registered voters.

Wha...? Only 5.1 million copies? What happened to the 8.4 million voters who were said (officially) to have voted for the initial national assembly?

Well...err...nobody says. The vaunted American news media don't want to know, ask questions or draw conclusions (if they even noticed the discrepancy). And if the foreign press noticed and asked, their Q & A's aren't reported to the American people. Our media masters prefer us to be uninformed, malinformed and/or quickly diverted to the latest Horrendous Murder, Manhunt, or Celebrity Trial.

This has been another snapshot of the real world. The Iraqi government is a lie and based on fraud. What a shock!

And the existence of the ever-growing Insurgency is the latest reason given by Bush for staying in Iraq 'until the job is done.' BUT there was no insurgency in Iraq until we invaded Iraq and made Iraq the focus and cause of all anti-American and anti-Western hatred in the middle east.

Now Bush has a violent, deadly tar baby stuck to his stupid ass, and we let him do the invasion, gung-ho, right-or-wrong patriots that we are!! We have to pay for it!

Ah, ignorance! Ah, arrogance! Ah, hubris! Ah, shit!
