

We are behind the scenes,
but in front of the crowd,
we help cheer you on,
we are a tool to teach,

we guide through prayer,
we take the stage,

we set the mood.

We are your wireless microphone system company.

For years, Telex has quietly led the industry with a broad range of wireless technical innovations. Take our latest solution – the new FMR-10. With impressive 10-channel frequency agility featuring ClearScan™ auto channel select, the FMR-10 offers superior professional quality sound at its simplest. In addition, the handheld transmitter features industry-acclaimed Electro-Voice® N/DYM® technology enhanced with VOB™ (vocal optimized bass) for incomparable sound and performance – at an affordable price.

Whatever your need, Telex has the sound solution to help you get heard... without wires.
